Texts of messages received for the 58th anniversary of the dedication of the Statue of Liberty
- October 28, 1944 -

from VICE-PRESIDENT HENRY A. WALLACE

"To me the Statue of Liberty is just as important a memorial as the Washington Monument. Those who have become American citizens because they believe in the American way of life and deliberately chose it in preference to the Fatherland will fight for liberty with a patriotic fervor fully equal to that of the native born. Wherever I go I am deeply impressed with the deep faith which the foreign born have in America. I am glad, therefore, that the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born is sponsoring this special celebration at the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island."

from GENERAL DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

"As this message is being written, in response to your recent letter, the United Nations forces are advancing along a great line across France against Nazi hordes. It is my fervent hope that soon the armies of the enemy shall have been driven completely from the soil of the country whose generosity made possible the statue on Bedloe's Island. I can think of no more fitting site where free men could gather in this momentous hour to rededicate themselves to a unified effort in the cause of human freedom and all these principles which are symbolized by the Statue of Liberty."

from SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR HAROLD L. IUKES

"This anniversary of the Statue of Liberty is perhaps one of the most significant since its dedication fifty-eight years ago as a symbol of Franco-American friendship and of devotion to freedom of the human spirit. It is particularly fitting that the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born should choose the statue as a rallying point, for it has been the lodestone drawing millions to these shores as a haven from the turbulent racial prejudices of the Old World. I am happy that the Goddess of Liberty has been able to continue to hold high her torch while France, whose inspired conception she was, was under a cloud of bestial indignities from which she is now triumphantly emerging."

from ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

"I am glad to know about the special ceremonies which the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born will hold on October 28th to celebrate the 58th anniversary of the dedication of the Statue of Liberty. I believe that this nation will always live up to its tradition and work for freedom and justice for all."
ANNIVERSARY CEREMONIES TO BE BROADCAST FROM STATUE OF LIBERTY

Radio Station WNYC will broadcast the ceremonies sponsored by the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born to commemorate the 58th anniversary of the dedication of the Statue of Liberty on Saturday, October 28th, from 1:05 P. M. to 1:30 P. M., it was announced today.

The broadcast will originate from the base of the Statue of Liberty, on Bedloe's Island in New York harbor, where the ceremonies are to be held.

The two speakers whose addresses will be broadcast will be William S. Gallow, news commentator; and Guerin de Beaumont, Consul General of the Provisional Government of the French Republic, which has just been recognized by the United States, Great Britain and the Soviet Union. The speakers will be introduced to the radio audience by George A. Palmer, Superintendent in charge of the Statue of Liberty National Monument for the United States Government.

Special messages to the ceremonies will be read as a part of the broadcast from Vice-President Henry A. Wallace, General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Thomas Mann.

Other speakers on the program, which will continue until 2:00 P. M., will include Commandant Jean de Lustrac, Chief of the French Military Mission to the United States; Albert J. Halm, President of L'Union Alsacienne; Louis Liebenguth, Vice-President of the Committee of French Speaking Societies; and Abnor Green, Executive Secretary of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

Mildah Polia, French-born opera star, will sing The Star Spangled Banner and The Marseillaise. Stanley N. Scott, Commander of La France Post #210 of the American Legion, will lead in the presentation of the colors.

F.B.I. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,

Washington, D.C.,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

This may be a little unusual, and it may not be the best thing to do, so I will have to leave that to your judgment. But it seems to me that Mrs. Roosevelt should read a copy of your statement to the Congressional committee (last March). Could you send her one?

She noted recently, in her column, that the newspapers were saying there is a world-wide conspiracy by the Russians for overthrowing democratic governments, especially ours. Ye gods! The newspapers! Seems a new idea to her, too! And she actually said, "I doubt if that is so." Tragic blindness, more as in one of her influence. I still wonder about her "friends, the Ladies." And there's Sam Elliott, also, preaching his ideas. I expect to write her that I have asked you to send her the above as a question for plans (plot).

With all good wishes,

The proceeds of the meeting, sponsored by the above named person, at the Book Cadillac Hotel, Tuesday, February 5th. Has been reported to the writer as follows.

The meeting was held in the grand ballroom of the hotel, and approximately nine hundred people attended the meeting. The speakers for the meeting were Smith, and the Rev. Fr. Arth Artenello, of Alabama. It is reported that Smith made the first address, at which time he illustrated his recent experiences before the audiences of the country, where he had spoken at a recent speaking tour. It is reported that Smith centered his main attack at Hollywood California, and the Communist element in that city. He is reported to have also spoke highly in favor of the veterans organization, headed by Fred Weiser in the city of Chicago Ill., and also against the Mai Smith, and the anti defamation League. He is also reported to have spoken in regards to the need for greater cooperation and closer association between the religion's of the United States, and stated that it a wonderful symbol of tolerance when Artenello would mount the platform to speak his own mind, irregardless of the consequences.

In his introduction of Artenello, Smith referred to him as the Father Coughlin of the South. Fr. Artenello's main theme consisted of an attack upon Communism. The talk is reported to have begun with an open attack upon the New Deal, Artenello blaming the New Deal for the majority of the faults connected with America today. It is reported that he next remarked on the status of Mrs. Roosevelt, revealing that she receives twenty five thousand dollars in all for her services at the U.N.C meetings and her pension and other items for which she receives remuneration. It is then reported that he then began his general discourse, stating that Communism is political atheism at its worst. Also, it is reported that pointed out that the leaders of the party at Moscow intend to eliminate all religion in order to achieve the revolution. With reference to the Jews, the priest is reported to have stated, "that we love the man but we condemn the act." Also, in this regards, it is reported that he pointed out certain factors in his own case, whereby the Jews were directly responsible for his difficulties within the ranks of the Roman Catholic Church. He is further reported to have stated that the Jews may persecute me all they want, but I shall continue to remain steadfast in my faith that I am right in this cause, and will continue it." Also, it is reported that Artenello stated that the main reason for his appearance on the public platform is he wanted to prove that a cooperative move is possible, as exemplified by Smith in his talk of the evening.

A collection was taken up for the work of Smith and also for the work of Artenello.

Included in the audience were the following known persons. Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Jennings of the American Legion, [in favor of Smith.] Mrs. Bruce, and several associates, Mr. [illegible] and several associates, Ken J. Weber, Frank Allos, latest associate of Weber. Dr. Leland Carrion of Pontiac who led in the closing prayer. N. Weddy, C. Orrow, U.S. Haggblom who discussed the possibility of a cooperative move with Smith within the ranks of one of the major parties, a delegate bloc. Haggblom is the head of the Golden Rule Club in Detroit. J. Vriendt.
Dear Friend:

In the rush of war activities and the cries of labor shortage on the farm many of us may think the sharecroppers no longer need our aid. Actually this is not so.

The war situation has not improved the sharecroppers' plight. Though thousands of their young men are wearing the uniform of our country, most of the sharecroppers are still bound to the land. The rising cost of staple commodities has more than negated the slight rise in prices they are receiving for their products. Their efforts for a political voice in our Government have been blocked so far in seven states by the recent defeat of the Poll Tax repeal bill.

Through their organization of Negro and White sharecroppers, the Southern Tenant Farmers Union, the sharecroppers are working for the kind of program which they know can best help them. It means soil conservation, cooperative farm projects, resettlement of families on the land, and social rehabilitation projects. They ask for the abolition of the poll tax, for anti-lynching legislation and the stamping out of illiteracy.

I ask your aid in this task. Your contribution of $100 will help us to reach thousands of sharecroppers with this practical program of aid. It will enable thousands of Americans, through an organized effort, to raise substantially their standards of life to something approaching a decent American level. Such a gift is an investment in American democracy. I hope very much that you will help as much as you can.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Gifford Pinchot
Mr. Steve Barrie, Director of Special Events, American Cancer Society, Inc., 521 West 57th Street, New York City, telephoned the Director at 12:20 p.m., December 22, 1955, stating he would like to see Mr. Hoover December 23, 1955. Mr. Wick in my office advised him of the Director's absence whereupon Barrie said he would be glad to discuss his request with Mr. Wick.

BACKGROUND:

Barrie by letter to the Director dated November 7, 1955, requested that the Director sign or make a statement to be used during the 1956 crusade against cancer and specifically during Cancer Control Month which is April, 1956. By letter dated November 15, 1955, the Director forwarded to Mr. Barrie a signed statement as requested captioned "Help Catch the Killer."

RECENT DEVELOPMENT:

At 10:15 a.m. Friday, December 23, Mr. Barrie came to Wick's office personally and left a galley proof of the book, "The Truth About Cancer," by Dr. Charles S. Cameron which is to be published about April 1, 1956. The foreword is by Dr. Elmer Hess, President, American Medical Association (copy attached).

Mr. Barrie also left with Wick the attached statement on stationery of the American Cancer Society with the request that the Director sign it and forward it. This statement, said Barrie, would be utilized in preparation of the jacket of "The Truth About Cancer."

Mr. Barrie told Wick that other "Great Americans" are being asked to contribute a statement to be used on the jacket of the book, and Barrie said that Fannie Hurst has already agreed to a statement and the American Cancer Society is approaching Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Dr. Ralph Bunche.

RE: 50 JAN 6 1956
Memorandum for Mr. Tolson

December 27, 1955

Mr. Barrie stated the statement should be returned to him at once because the book is about ready for printing.

ACTION TAKEN:

The Director's absence from the city and his indefinite return were explained to Barrie by Wick.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the Director not sign the attached statement which will be utilized on the jacket of the book, "The Truth About Cancer," along with statements of Eleanor Roosevelt and Dr. Bunche.

2. That the attached in-absence letter be forwarded to Mr. Barrie explaining the Director's absence and enclosing a galley proof of the book together with a copy of the foreword by Dr. Hess. It is believed this action should be taken for the reason it would not be desirable for the Director's statement to appear along with Eleanor Roosevelt's and Dr. Bunche's.
With reference to the letter written on the stationery of the Brooklyn Eagle addressed to Walter Winchell under date of July 2 regarding the statement of Father Edmund F. Brophy to the effect that Mrs. Titus of the jury which tried the Christian Front case was his cousin, I desire to advise that this information has been received from other sources.

On July 1st Special Agent received a telephone call from and when he called at the New York Office on July 2nd, he informed the Agent that he had personally attended a meeting at Prospect Hall on Friday night, June 28th, which was presided over by an individual whom Father Birkhead referred to as Young Scanlan. The speakers were John F. Cassidy and Father Edward Brophy, Pastor of the Church of the Precious Blood, Astoria, Long Island. In the course of his talk Father Brophy made the following statement as near as can recalls:

"There is one matter connected with the Jury in this case that hasn't been disclosed up to this moment, but I think it is safe to tell you now. I refer to Mrs. Helen Titus, foreman of the Jury. You may be interested to know that she is my first cousin."

Pandemonium broke loose in the Hall following this statement. It is also significant to note that reported that he bought copies of Social Justice during the course of the trial and would engage in conversation with the vendors. Whenever he would state that it looked bad for the defendants, the vendors would always reassure him that everything was all right.

RECORDED & INDEXED in his letter of July 2, 1940, he is a very active anti-Catholic crusader and is located in Kansas City, Missouri. Father Brophy spoke on March 1, 1940, at Prospect Hall in behalf of the Parents Defense Fund, which was attended by a

the defendants, Father Brophy, Father Edward L. Curran, Leo J. Healy and Bernard D'Arcy, chief representative of Social Justice. At this meeting Father Brophy referred to the case as having been initiated by the former Attorney General, Mr. Murphy, Walter Winchell, Mayor LaGuardia, Westbrook Pegler, Mrs. Roosevelt and Rabbi Wise.

On July 2nd Father Brophy appeared as a witness on behalf of Joe McWilliams but was not allowed to testify. With reference to the allegation concerning Mrs. Helen Titus, was advised by U.S. Attorney Kennedy after the Jury had been sworn in that he had some doubt as to whether she would be a good jurywoman. Information was subsequently received that Mrs. Titus is the sister-in-law of Austin Titus who was the secretary to Mr. Hulrooney when he was Commissioner of Police and was later connected with the motion picture industry in Hollywood.

Advice was received from that he contemplated calling this situation to the attention of the Attorney General.

Respectfully,

N.Y. Daily Mirror

Dear Mr. Winchell,

In Brooklyn's beer-drenched Prospect Hall last Friday night, John Fuehrer Cassidy and received the frenzied hurrahs of 500 of his Christian Fronters and support from Father Edmund F. Brophy, pastor of Precious Blood, R.C. Church, Long Island City.

As is customary with members of that movement, Father Brophy denounced W.W. (the great wind), Eleanor Roosevelt, LaGuardia, on and on, Commonweal, the Jewish Examiner, New Masses, others, for their "un-American attitude toward the Christian Front." While discussing the trial of the 14 unholy men, the Reverend proudly announced:

"Don't get this wrong because it has no direct bearing on the case, but that good lady, Mrs. Titus, is of my blood. She's a first cousin of mine. I'm proud of the whole thing."

Earlier Cassidy described how Mrs. Titus "victoriously" announced "not guilty" for nine of them and "dejectedly" admitted "disagreement" for the others.

'First Lady'
Makes Poll Tax Appeal

With the poll tax ready for a test vote in the House, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt made a last-minute appeal for its abolition. Speaking at the annual city-wide observance of Harlem Week last Sunday in New York City, she said the repeal of the poll tax would be of benefit "not only for the colored people but for all people."

The two test votes in the House on Monday indicated the treatment the bill was to receive. The first vote registered 288 for and 116 against; the second vote registered 265 to 105.

In the same speech Mrs. Roosevelt called for equal justice before the law for all races, equality of opportunity, equality of employment and decent living conditions, and the privilege of all citizens to participate in government.

The first lady said: "There should not be German communities, Scandinavian communities, and other communities of foreign born. There should be just American communities."

Mark Starr of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, urged the AFL to use its influence to eliminate Jim Crowism in the few unions that still practice it.

Assemblyman William T. Andrews said he found Southern Negroes, during his recent trip to South Carolina "despondent, without hope and with little fight in them."

PEOPLE'S VOICE
May 29, 1943
A PLea From Africa's Combat Zone

Dear Sir: We, the Negro soldiers of America, are engaged in a war for freedom and democracy. We have a job to do—not altogether from the soldiering standpoint—we are also confronted with jimmy. We realize that we are not here on a pleasant trip but we are here to help win the war. How can we do this when so many of our officers are of the opposite race?

We had an officer in the 28th Quartermaster Regiment who said: "I have been in the outfit with n—— soldiers for one year, and I have not yet understood them. I must say that I am tired of being with them and I don't like them." This report presented before the General who commanded white and Negro soldiers, resulted in the officer being relieved from the company where he was First Lieutenant, and promoted to Adjutant of the same regiment with the rank of Captain. What do you call that?

I will also mention this. A few days ago one of our regiment officers threw a brick at a soldier in his command, saying, "If you say one word I will court martial the h—— out of you." Then he shook the soldier, daring him to talk back or lift a hand to defend himself. This is what we go through every day of our lives.

Over here in the theater of operation, certain places are barred to us with "White Only" signs across the doors. We have had white American soldiers to spit in our faces since we have been overseas. What could we do? Those soldiers were armed with machine guns and we had nothing to protect ourselves. One or two of our soldiers have been killed for nothing by white MPs.

We realize this is war. We have had nine months of combat duty,—nine months in living hell. One thing I ask in behalf of all the soldiers in this organization—for some leading Negro to investigate our conditions. I might be court-martialed for writing this but it is okay with me—I am willing to die for justice and equality.

For all the men of this organization—

CPL. JOHN MARSHALL,
28th Quartermaster Regiment.

As Cops Beat
Milton Massey

Harlem witnessed one more shameful case of police brutality May 18 and is awaiting the outcome of justice this week as the People's Committee went to bat for Milton Massey.

Hamilton terrace was aroused by the terrifying screams of Massey, and hundreds witnessed from their doors and windows two white plainclothes policemen inflict such a cruel beating upon him that they were moved to shouts of protest and some even threw bottles from their windows.

Massey escaped into number 3 Hamilton terrace where he roomed. While his landlord barred the way of the pursuing white cops and argued with them, Officer Wallace, a Negro who lives in the neighborhood, arrived in response to two shots fired by one of the pursuers.

Wallace brought the battered and bleeding Massey down in his pajamas and barefooted. When they reached the door, say witnesses, Wallace knocked Massey down a flight of stone stairs to the street.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Massey who has been in prison for a week awaiting a hearing, says he was approached by the plainclothesmen when he sought cover in a vestibule during a storm. He was asked, he says, if he could get a colored girl for them. When he refused the men followed him home.

It was remembered by many observers that police brutalities in the Armstrong case were not prosecuted by the Grand Jury and that police have escaped punishment in other similar cases.
Mothers Start Campaign of Freedom Rally At Garden.

Monday night at the Witeka Club of a nucleus committee of prominent women, the war wives and their support to the Negro Freedom Rally, June 7, at Madison Square Garden.

The sponsorship of the People's Committee and the Negro Labor Victory Committee, will have as its main theme of Negro soldiers in the armed forces. Surrounded by the mounting protests against the mistreatment of over 200 members of the famous 369th undergoing special training at Camp Stewart, Ga., the war wives of service men mourning for action from nations and newspapers.

Some women's clubs are reserving blocks of seats at the Garden for the night of June 7. Speakers will include Dr. Channing Tobin, executive secretary of the Urban League; Rep. Vito Marcantonio; Charles A. Collins of the National YMCA; Lester B. Granger, and some other well-known personalities.

The majority of the members of the People's Committee have had to go through various injustices and have not been recognized for their service. The organizers of the rally are hoping to bring these injustices to the attention of the entire nation.

THE decision of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to build "a walled city" in Manhattan is another evidence of the growth of southernism in New York City. The acceptance of the project by the City Planning Commission, the endorsement of it by City officials and the forthcoming meeting of the Board of Estimate to officially pass on it, is un-Americanism at its very worst.

Ecker, of the Metropolitan stated that this new project to house 20,000 people will not admit any Negroes. Two million Negroes have policies in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company aggregating close to one billion dollars. The City is a partner in this new venture—JIM CROW, INCORPORATED.

It will grant millions of dollars of tax exemption to this development to be called Stuyvesant Town.

Stanley Isaacos and I have introduced in City Council a law to forestall this but it looks like the powers-to-be will put a "bum's rush" on the Board of Estimate when it convenes Wednesday, June 2d. The only thing that can be done in such short time, is to let the members of the Board of Estimate know that their political future is sealed and doomed as far as the Negro voter is concerned if they become members of the JIM CROW, INCORPORATED. However, in the Board of Estimate three men—LaGuardia, McGoldrick, Newbold Morris—control the majority of votes between them. Regardless of how the Borough Presidents vote those three can put thru southernism in N. Y. C.

IF THE METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE POLICY GOES THRU IT WILL BE DUE TO THE VOTES OF FIORELLO LA GUARDIA, JOSEPH McGOLDRICK AND NEWBOLD MORRIS.

This will be a stab in the back to democracy. It can not go thru unless the Metropolitan Life in its covenant of the city specifically states it will accept Negro people.

WE ARE NOT GOING TO ALLOW AMERICAN FASCISTS TO BUILD A SOUTHERN TOWN IN THE HEART OF MANHATTAN.

THIS IS WHAT YOU MUST DO TODAY—

1. Write LaGuardia, McGoldrick, Morris.
2. Write your Borough President.
3. Get all organizations to send letters to these individuals.
4. Arrange appointments with members of the Board of Estimate. Let them know their political future is sealed if they vote in favor.
5. Get out citizen's injunctions now through the courts.
6. Pack City Hall and the park on Wednesday, June 2nd, at 2:30, when the hearing comes up before the Board.
7. Write the Board of Estimate's secretary a registered letter asking for the privilege of speaking.
8. Whether you are going to move or not, write the Metropolitan Life and file application for the Parkchester Development in the Bronx and Stuyvesant Town in Manhattan.

Rather have slums in which free people will live than skyscrapers filled with the bastard air of domestic fascism.
LABOR looks AHEAD

By FERDINAND C. SMITH
Secretary, National Maritime Union, CHA

(Ed. Note: Mr. Smith's regular column this week gives way to a report of his speech at the launching of the S.S. Frederick Douglass, in Baltimore, Saturday, May 22.)

It is fitting and proper that in a war for freedom and liberation a vessel called the Frederick Douglass should sail the seas. During another war for the same aims, this great abolitionist, orator and journalist was in the forefront in the fight against slavery. His last words have lived, and this ship delivering vital materials of war symbolizes the ideas for which Frederick Douglass fought in his lifetime.

This ship will take its place with another famous vessel which has made history in this war. Like the FREDERICK DOUGLASS, this other vessel is also named for a famous Negro who fought for the right of all people to be free and equal, Booker T. Washington. Like the BOOKER T., the FREDERICK DOUGLASS is more than a ship. It is a floating symbol of our war aims. It will become a fighting symbol of the United Nations' war against Fascism.

Its visits to the war fronts will again impress on the minds of all fighting men, and will serve to remind them during the heat of battle, that this is a war for freedom and equality and is against evil and oppression.

WILL BE A REMINDER

Its presence on the seas will annoy the axis no end because its very name will prove that the United Nations does not recognize jim-crow; that all men are created equal and that Negro as well as white can fight for freedom.

It will play an important part in carrying war materials for the defense of Europe, an invasion which will aid the allies between the powerful Red Army on one side and the troops of our country and our Allies on the other. This invasion will speed the unconditional surrender of our enemy. It will make possible the liberation of the oppressed people of Europe.

Frederick Douglass spent the first twenty-three years of his life as a slave. He did not like it. He fought it. As the Negro, just as the people of the occupied countries who, under Hitler, have been subjected to fear and oppression, are today fighting. Douglass, as a free man, saw the issues of the day back in the Civil War; he fought them for the basic principles of human freedom; just as today the people in the occupied countries resist their oppressors.

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER

In the Civil War, Douglass said "Slavery must end or die." Today it is recognized that fascism is no different and must be treated similarly. The historic Conference of London will cause us to believe that there will be no expansion of fascism. The victory in North Africa is the first fruit of that unconditional surrender policy.

Frederick Douglass was a great man. He was loved by his people. He was feared by his enemies. This ship will be like him.

In Capt. Richardson, who will command the FREDERICK DOUGLASS, the United Nations have a good fighter for freedom. He has the respect of Captain W. M. Westcott of WASHINGTON, who, through his skillful handling of his vessel, has delivered countless tons of valuable materials to our troops and to our Allies in North Africa and in Europe, who has earned for himself and his United Nations crew the respect and admiration of the free people of the world.

The appointment of Capt. Richardson to this position marks another victory in the fight of the Negro people for equality at home.

To the Captain and to the crew of the FREDERICK DOUGLASS, we of the National Maritime Union extend heartfelt congratulations on the great victory. To the builders of the FREDERICK DOUGLASS, to the men and women of the shipyards who have put together the fighting symbol of democracy, we extend our heartfelt congratulations, greetings. To the people of the United Nations who, like the Negro people, can point with pride to this vessel and can proudly say that it marks another victory over these reactionary and deplorable forces within our country who, refusing to recognize the true character of this war, would continue to subject the Negro people, as well as other minorities, to a subordinate place within our democracy.

This ship is the answer of all of the anti-Fascist forces to these appeaser groups.

It will also be an answer to the axis.

We look forward to the day when the United Nations at war will be transformed into the United Nations at peace, and ships like the BOOKER T. WASHINGTON and the FREDERICK DOUGLASS will be able
Robeson to Receive Honorary Degree

Paul Robeson, "democracy's greatest voice," will become Dr. of Humane Letters at Moorehouse College in Atlanta, Ga., on June 3 when he delivers the commencement address at that institution.

The only man in the world who can turn a concert into a rally for the rights of minority groups, the renowned people's artist told PV that week that he is "much impressed" with the South, where he has appeared in 5 or 6 concerts during past season.

"I wouldn't sing to segregated audiences," he said, "as I sang in Negro schools and white people came. I was much impressed by a youth hunger for education."

"One understands role."

He went on to say that to preserve the spirit of Negro youth the south sugars much for the future. "He is proving that he understands his role in the world-wide struggle against fascism.

Robeson also told PV that it is a source of deep pride to know that he is receiving his first degree in a Negro institution (a similar degree was bestowed upon him at Hamline College, Eden Prairie school).

"If they looked at an isolated America, the picture would be a pessimistic one," Robeson said, "but once society has a chance to grow in every part of the world, it will grow to a stature where the world values the contributions of people."

He didn't believe that Stalin would have made such a pronouncement as the dissolution of the Communist International if he had free press would be opened quickly.

- the Negro must support the Negro Freedom Rally to show that he understands his role in the global conflict.
- If America is to function as a world power there must be centralization of government and economy after the war is won.

NEW POST-WAR WORLD

He went on to say that after the defeat of Hitler and the bann ed people of Asia and the British West Indies will be free that Africa will occupy a different position in the post-war world; that there will be a greater understanding between the countries of the Western Hemisphere; that this America is to survive, she will have to deal with the millions of Negroes who will no longer be in bondage.

"If the government were trained now it would mean breaking down of the autocracy of the states and the polls as anti-lynch legislation would be forced by the federal government."

RAB HEAVY PROGRAM

Protection of all the people, complete equality, he said necessary for national unity and Chief Executive must feel that the power to act in the interest of the people. Up to present time, he has been in agreement with the state's rights. This issue, he said, will be a major issue in post-war planning.

The great people's artist was very much pleased. He will meet next week in Radford, Conn., with the Robe"
American Fascism—The Ku Klux Klan. It tried to suppress liberal publications but allowed Social Justice to carry its anti-Semitic filth. Not one of the lynch mobs performing Hitler's deeds was ever brought to the bar of justice by this Texas fascist.

Martin Dies is a Poll taxer, an American Hitler, a leader of the anti-Semitism bracket of the 5th column, and a saboteur of the Bill of Rights.

The statement that he will dissolve his committee is too good to be true. Even if the Dies Committee is dissolved, the nefarious work of the domestic fascists will continue. The complete extermination of them and their organization can only be accomplished by a strong united people.

Martin Dies and his torch bearing sycophants in Washington are among the leaders of the Russian anti-Semitic movement to purge America of the influence of men like the Texas poll-taxer and saboteur of the Bill of Rights.

LET MY PEOPLE GO—NOW! This was the cry of the children of Israel in bondage in Egyptland. It was the chant of our forefathers held in servitude by slavery's chains. Today black men and women are ever more insistently demanding—LET MY PEOPLE GO—NOW! This must be done!

A few months ago we buried Gene Talmadge—on June 7 we will bury Martin Dies.

Fascist Dies Tips His Hand

MARTIN DIES has offered to abolish his committee. The reason stated is that since Moscow has dissolved the Communist International "there is no further need for the Dies Committee."

By this statement, Dies branded himself as a fascist-minded red baiter. We, the people, have always known this. We know that the Dies Committee existed for the sole purpose of smearing liberals, minorities and trade unions under the cloak of communism. The Dies Committee has never conducted a thorough investigation of a single un-American individual or fascist organization. The committee was created, however, to uncover all un-American elements. It has served only as a red-baiting organization.

The Dies Committee not only ignores fascist organizations, but Martin Dies personally cooperated with well-known domestic fascist saboteurs of democracy, lynch-law exponents and American Worsters. If the Moscow move to disband the International accomplishes no other good than to dissolve the Dies Committee, it will have been one of the greatest contributions to the present war effort.

Martin Dies constantly played Hitler's game. He gave aid and comfort to the expansion of Hitlerism in America. He failed to investigate un-Americans like Father Coughlin, Gerald Winrod Smith, George Deathridge and hundreds of others with yellow backbones.

This committee conducted witch-hunts besmirching the character of people like Mary McLeod Bethune. It did not conduct one investigation of the murder of Negro soldiers by civilians. It turned its back on the fascist-inspired Sojourner Truth Housing riot. It ignored the most vicious un-American organizations but allowed the lynching mob of justice by this

MEMORANDUM FOR Mr. Ladd
Mr. Rosen
Mr. O'Leary
Mr. Belmont
Mr. Gearty

Reference is made to my memorandum dated March 10, 1950, which transmitted to you a list of persons who were not to be interviewed in connection with applicant or other matters unless compelling reasons dictate otherwise.

Attached is the name of such a person, concerning whom you have previously been advised in this regard. In the future, this individual is not to be contacted by any FBI representative under any circumstances without my personal authorization.

Very truly yours,

[Signature]

NOTE: Instructions based on Director's notation made on copy of Mrs. Roosevelt's column (in November 29, 1952, Washington Post). This column was derisive of an FBI investigation of John Foster Dulles. This investigation was of the applicant type, in view of his appointment as Secretary of State in the Eisenhower Cabinet. Mrs. Roosevelt has previously been carried on the list of persons not to be contacted without specific Bureau authority. However, in view of the Director's current explicit instruction that she is to be contacted only on his specific personal authorization, this memorandum has been written to so advise appropriate Bureau officials.

Your attention is directed to a column by the above

November 29, 1952. The first two paragraphs of this column state:

"I was visited on Tuesday by an FBI agent who tried to be very solemn as he asked me about the loyalty and competence of John Foster Dulles, our future Secretary of State.

"This agent's behavior was a wonderful feat -- keeping a straight face while making such yesterday I was visited again with questions about another impeccable character. So, I want to reassure any of my friends who think that the

You are instructed that Mrs. Roosevelt is not to be contacted for any reason by any FBI representative unless such contact is personally authorized by me.

ADDENDUM: LB:form 12-2-52. I called SAC Boardman on December 2 and advised him that letter was en route instructing that Mrs.
Roosevelt was not be contacted under any consideration without specific authorization from the Director.
He stated he would issue instructions promptly.

MAILED 2

COMM. FBI
NEW YORK—I was visited on Tuesday by an FBI agent who tried to be very solemn as he asked me about the loyalty and competence of John Foster Dulles, our future Secretary of State.

This agent's behavior was a wonderful feat—keeping a straight face while making such an inquiry. I'm afraid I smiled openly. Then yesterday I was visited again with questions about another impeccable character. So, I want to reassure any of my friends who think that the FBI is not on the job and is not able to protect us.

Representative E. F. Cox, Democrat of Georgia, who is Chairman of a Special House Investigating Committee looking into the expenditure of funds by exempt foundations, made an astounding statement at a hearing recently when he said "a great number of grants have been given to people disloyal to the United States.

Among others, he referred to the Rockefeller Foundation, which brought forth from the Foundation's President, Dean Rusk, the following statement: "The Rockefeller Foundation has reported the facts on these grants to the Cox Committee in our reply to the questionnaire sent us by the committee."

It is confusing or amusing, or both, to have great foundations in this country under attack for helping subversive persons and at the same time to have them attacked by Moscow.

In the Czechoslovakian trials the Ford Foundation was accused of "sending spies, murderers, saboteurs and wreckers" into east Europe. I should say that this, if true, indicated that the foundations had been very careful to keep a balance between being too conservative or too radical. When you please neither extreme, you are probably doing a pretty good job in keeping in the middle of the road.

Tuesday night I went to Tenneck to a very interesting meeting—the first one sponsored by the HI-Y and Tri HI-Y clubs and the county committee of the Y. M. C. A. of Bergen County. There were many young men, and young women present from many "Y" groups, and they conducted their meeting in a very fine way.

The theme was a Thanksgiving Service to draw the attention of all present to the things for which we, in this country, may be thankful, but to emphasize, as well, our close ties with the rest of the world, and the growth of human brotherhood throughout the world. These young people are anxious to know the world as a whole and they believe in human dignity and its recognition for all peoples.

Probe Airs F.D.R.-Browder Link During War

By JERRY GREENE

Washington, Feb. 26 (News Bureau).—A sensational and documented tale of a close World War II link between the late President Roosevelt and Earl Browder, former chief of the U.S. Community Party, was unfolded today by the Senate Internal Security subcommittee.

The subcommittee made public excerpts from testimony taken secretly in January from Josephine Truslow Adams, 57, a painter and art teacher who once lived at 223 E. 17th St., New York.

Miss Adams, a descendent of Presidents John Adams and John Quincy Adams, detailed to the committee how she served as a go-between for F.D.R. and Browder, carrying dispatches, cables and a free flow of advice on political matters.

Committee counsel Robert Morris announced that he had been authorized by Browder to confirm completely the account given by Miss Adams.

The witness told of exchanges of advice and information between Browder and F.D.R. over the Tehran and Yalta conferences.

Miss Adams testified that in addition to "38 or 40" personal visits to Roosevelt either at the White House or at his Hyde Park, N. Y., estate, where she spent the night a couple of times, she corresponded almost constantly with the President. Much of the time, she was, she said, her letters through Miss Eleanor Roosevelt.

Had Data From Red China

The Adams testimony was backed solidly by Frank X. Meyer, a Woodstock, N. Y., writer and reformed Communist.

Meyer said he had many long talks with Miss Adams about her activities at the White House and the relationship between Browder and F.D.R. and that Browder was using all means to the President's decisions.

Miss Adams testified that Browder received secret military information from Red China and she personally carried one of the documents to the White House.

Roosevelt did not want China to go Communist, she said, but he bad little faith in the Nationalist government.

Miss Adams previously had denied charges she served as Browder's White House courier. In December, 1953, she insisted she was an "obscure and humble artist . . . not a mysterious cloak and dagger figure."

Her denial came after John Lautner, a one-time Red official, and former Communist Louis Bunts told the Subversive Activities Control Board she had been Browder's go-between. Meyer gave similar testimony Jan. 5, 1954, before the SACB.
These Days... Josephine Adams and FDR

By George Sokolsky

MISS Josephine Trusty Adams acted as a go-between for President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Earl Browder. Her testimony, about which much has been written and heard in the past, has now been made available by the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security. To some Democrats, it is unseemly to have any testimony taken concerning a President who so recently died and whose family is still about, but to most Americans, history is history.

Miss Adams played in the fringes of the Communist movement and knew many of the leaders of the 1930s. It was the President who initiated her interest in Browder. It came about in this way:

"And as soon as he (the President) had given me directions on that, he turned around suddenly and began talking about the Browder case and asked me—"he said suddenly, 'What do you think would happen if I should pardon Earl Browder tomorrow? Just like that. 'How would the newspapers take it?' And I told him to the best of my ability what I thought would happen at that time."

MISS ADAMS then testified that she saw the President 38 or 40 times either at Hyde Park or at the White House. An interesting episode is related by Miss Adams. President Roosevelt did not want a third party outside of New York State to exist. The American Labor Party had been established as a catch-all for Communists, Socialists and liberals of various kinds who were willing to vote for Roosevelt but not for the Democratic Party. So Miss Adams talked to Earl Browder about this. Then she recounts:

"...And (1) I was interested to know that in those days he (Browder) had a good deal of influence, because within a few days there were things in the papers all over the country about the fact that there would be no third party outside of the ALP in New York State—not just in the Communist papers, but all over. And Benson of the former Labor group was approached and had an interview with Earl in New York, and of course Gil Green, of later fame, wrote an article in the Daily Worker itself on that subject, and the Times came out with an article that there would be understood there would be no third party beyond New York State in the '44 election."

There is a further comment by Miss Adams:

"...Browder was the most amazing piece of political engineering—of course—the first thing I had witnessed of how fast things could go if they were organized. In other words, there it really worked. And at that time, he (Browder) was at the peak of influence. Browder had a great deal of influence outside of the party at that time, although he was so short-lived in prison..."

According to Miss Adams, Earl Browder was in a position concerning events in China. She gave Browder's summary to Mr. Roosevelt. This testimony by Miss Adams is most interesting:

"...He (Browder) handed it to me... It came from a suitcase that had come in from Burma, some place in the East. Because I saw him take some papers out of the lining of a suitcase somebody had brought him. It had come by plane..."

IT IS NOT QUITE understandable why the President of the United States engaged in a surreptitious relationship with the head of the Communist Party. Mr. Roosevelt is not alive to testify. His principal secretaries, Steve Early, Marvin McIntire and Le Hand, who may have known about such matters, are dead. Miss Adams has testified under oath that she often communicated with the President via Mrs. Roosevelt. And Mrs. Roosevelt is alive to deny or to confirm Miss Adams' statements, although it is obvious that Mrs. Roosevelt may not have stopped to read the communications which she forwarded.

The United States was at war and the President may have desired to tap every available source of information. Therefore he may have regarded it as advantageous to find out what Browder knew. However, when Miss Adams was first used she herself did not know Browder who developed confidence in her because he believed that she had helped to effect his release from prison.

It is a peculiar historical episode. When Miss Adams' testimony is read in the light of the Morgenthau diaries, it would seem as though many were devoting themselves to giving Roosevelt misinformation.

THE PROTESTANT, formerly known as the Protestant Digest.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:
Confidential Informants report close contact maintained by Editorial Executives of subject publication with ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG, Director of Publications, and member of National Committee of Communist Party. Editorial policy of THE PROTESTANT found to be a strict parallel of the Communist Party line. Magazine in general disfavor with all national Protestant and Jewish organizations due to its vicious anti-Catholic policies and pro-Communist sympathies.

REFERENCE:
Report of Special Agent [redacted], dated 5/18/43, at New York City.

OFFICERS AND HEADQUARTERS:

KENNETH LESLIE - EDITOR

Sponsor - American Peace Mobilization, 1940.
Sponsor - Congress of New York Youth, 1940.
"My attention was first called to THE PROTESTANT when I saw a high powered advertisement of an article entitled, 'God's Red Army'. The Red Army deserves respect as a tough, gallant force but why bring God into the picture of an Army that has never tolerated a military chaplain?

Recently I got hold of the April-May issue and its contents exceeded my worst expectations. Here is a magazine that seems devoted to two main purposes; indiscriminating abuse of the Roman Catholic Religion and indiscriminated glorification of STALINISM. . . . . . . Turning over a page after reading this editorial one finds a smear article on Poland, entitled, 'Roman Catholic Anti-Sovietism' by EDWARD FALKOWSKI. It may only be a coincidence but when I was living in Moscow 10 years ago, one of the most persistent contributors to the MOSCOW DAILY NEWS bore the name of EDWARD FALKOWSKI. If it is the same EDWARD FALKOWSKI, he is running eminently true to form in THE PROTESTANT."

From this same Library was obtained the following editorial, which appeared in THE SOUTHERN CROSS, a Catholic periodical dated July 2, 1943:

"Protestants rather than Catholics should be the ones to go after KENNETH LESLIE of THE PROTESTANT. That magazine is in no sense a periodical furthering the interests of Protestantism. It is primarily devoted to Communism. It is the most subtle agent of Red Communism in America today."

KENNETH LESLIE has a pro-Communist record. Before Pearl Harbor he was the most garrulous of Isolationists. He appealed for the release of EARL BROWDER; he interested himself in the cause of the Communist, ODELL WALLER; he signed a petition to PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT asking him to rescind the order to deport HARRY BRIDGES.

Also in the files of the Religious News Service, was noted a letter dated June 2, 1943, from MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT to New York City. This letter in its entirety stated:
Since writing you I obtained a copy of the February-March issue of THE PROTESTANT and I agree with you that this magazine is more political than religious. It certainly is not what I thought it was from MR. LESLIE'S presentations. I have written to MR. LESLIE exactly how I feel.

Very sincerely yours,

/s/ ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

The files of the Religious News Service also contained a letter dated November 4, 1942, from

"KENNETH LESLIE has confessed that through an inexplicable error the full-page advertisement which he had inserted in the NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE of October 27, included as many as 17 unauthorized signatures -- my own name was one of the fraudulent signatures. I had not known that a petition of this character had been drafted. Had I been asked to sign it, I would, of course, have refused for it is in violent opposition to views I have long held. I shall be exceedingly grateful for any effort of the Religious News Service to correct this grave injustice."

As a result of this letter a bulletin was issued by the Religious News Service explaining the concern of church leaders over this petition calling for a Second Front, contending that such was out of the province of Ministers and should be left to the Military Authorities.

The NEW YORK SUN on November 13, 1942 carried an article on its editorial page written by GEORGE E. SCHOLSKY. In this article the writer stated that he had discovered the PROTESTANT DIGEST to be an "anti-Catholic magazine with a curious left wing tinge. This pro-Jewish, anti-Catholic tone gives the false impression that to be pro-Jewish one must be anti-Catholic. I found a letter dated December 27, 1939 on PROTESTANT DIGEST stationery, signed by S. R. NICHOL in which this gentleman announces his connection with the publication and for which he was apparently soliciting subscriptions and taking on agents at a commission of 50%. In this letter he says, 'many of the better crew of men who formerly worked with me on the AMERICAN HERALD have now come with the PROTESTANT DIGEST and are more than doubling their weekly earnings.'

COMMUNIST POLITICAL ASSOCIATION

There was no appreciable change in the membership of the local Association during March, 1945. The enrollment campaign stood still and no further progress was made in this regard. As of January, 1945, a total of only eleven recruits were enrolled in the local association. As of March 31, 1945, the local Association had a total of 332 members. This number is the result of 204 recruits enrolled in 1944 who still have not yet been enrolled in the current year. The total number of members enrolled in 1945, including recruits to the Association who have not yet been enrolled in 1945, is 308.

It was announced in the Washington "Afro-American" on March 24, 1945, that more than 2500 young people and adults attended the 8th Annual Assembly of the 12th Street Y.M.C.A. which opened on March 23, 1945, at Shiloh Baptist Church when Mrs. HARRY BETHUNE spoke. She advised the youth to prepare themselves now for intelligent leadership in the future. She stated that there were millions of youth throughout the South who did not have the privileges which they had, that those youth in the South looked to them for leadership and that they must not fail them.

An article appeared in "V" on April 4, 1945, which related that the Army's quashing of the sentences of four negro WACS convicted at Fort Devens, Massachusetts, for refusing to obey a direct order to return to work was regarded by progressives and negro leaders as further indication that the Army and Navy were beginning to realize that all was not well with their policy with negro servicemen and women. This article stated that in connection with the Fort Devens episode, the National Council of Negro Women and the National Association for Advancement of Colored People demanded an immediate investigation. "A leader in the protest was Dr. HARRY MACLEOD BETHUNE, president of the National Council and also the only negro member of the National Advisory Committee of the WACS. Upon learning of the War Department's decision on the WACS, Mrs. BETHUNE stated that the outcome of the Fort Devens truce has greatly stimulated the morale of our people all over the country, particularly of the women of the armed forces. We feel that the action shows a decided trend toward more definite attempt to correct unbalances which have been going on in the service in regard to negro men and women."

This article stated that the four WACS were convicted of violating the 64th Article of War following a personal order by General MILES on March 10th to return to work after 54 WACS at Lowell had struck because they contended they were discriminated against and forced to do dirty work not required of the white WACS at the hospital.

An article in the Washington "Afro-American" on April 7, 1945, announced that during the previous week, the National Council of Negro Women had opened a campaign to raise $55,000 with which to expand and make more effective its program. The campaign will be headed by Mrs. DAISY LINKIN of Pittsburgh and Congresswoman HELEN GHAGAN DOOLAS and will be carried on during April, May, and June, 1945. Others on the campaign committee are

Dr. CHARLOTTE HANKINS BROWN
Mrs. DOROTHY YELLANCA

- 10 -
Congresswoman FRANCES KOLTON
Mrs. AGNES EYER

CHARLEY CHEROKEE wrote in the Chicago "Defender" on April 14, 1945, that Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, along with several other prominent liberal women, was aiding the National Council of Negro Women to raise the $55,000 that it needed. CHEROKEE reported that at the recent meeting to plan for the raising of such funds Mrs. ROOSEVELT asked Mrs. BETHUNE how much money the organization had received from MARRIAGE AND JIM and she informed Mrs. ROOSEVELT that $2,000 had been received.

The Washington "Tribune" on April 14, 1945, had an article which revealed that the National Council of Negro Women's History Committee was sponsoring a history program with the Reverend FRANCIS OPEEK, director of the D. C. Federation of Churches, as speaker. The chairman of this History Committee of subject organization is Mrs. HILDAY.

It was reported in the Chicago "Defender" dated April 21, 1945, that Mrs. BETHUNE, an unofficial advisor to the President, had spoken over Blue Network hookup on the night of Friday, April 13, 1945, to pay tribute to the late President ROOSEVELT. She had canceled a speaking tour in Texas and returned to Washington by plane from Dallas to attend the President's funeral.

Accounts in negro newspapers just prior to the death of President ROOSEVELT indicated that there was a movement in progress to have Mrs. BETHUNE officially appointed as one of President ROOSEVELT's advisors.

FRATERNAL COUNCIL OF NEGRO CHURCHES

It was related in an article in the Washington "Tribune" on March 31, 1945, that ministers representing twenty states had gathered in Washington, D. C., during the previous week at the call of the Fraternal Council of Negro Churches to confer with Congressman and with a White House representative in the interest of enactment of legislation for a permanent FEPC with enforcement powers. Reverend WILLIAM JERNAGIN is director of the Council's Washington bureau.

Through his administrative assistant, JAMES BYRNE, the group delivered a message to President ROOSEVELT. In it they said the Christian church is concerned with the economic crisis which will probably follow in the wake of the war. They said, "We are painfully aware of the race riots which followed World War I, all of which had their origin in unfair employment conditions and the lack of adequate Governmental machinery to deal with them."

It should be noted that NOB THOMPSON is Chairman of the New York State Communist Party and a member of the National Board and of the National Committee of the Communist Party.

The "Daily Worker" of March 17, 1946, Page five, Column three, contains an advertisement of the National Citizens Emergency Relief Committee to Aid Strikers' Families, 570 Seventh Avenue, Room 1003. It contained a plea for contributions to feed families of A.F. of L., C.I.O. and independent striking unions. The article mentioned that the United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America had been on strike for eight weeks already against Westinghouse and General Electric. The other unions mentioned were the Food and Tobacco Workers, the Farm Equipment Workers, the Steel Workers, the Auto Workers, and the Textile Workers, no A.F. of L. unions being mentioned at all.

The above mentioned advertisement listed the National officers of the Committee as follows:

Chairman
DR. FRANK KINGDON
Treasurer
MICHAEL Y. NISSELSON
Executive Director
IRA L. CAHN

Among the National Board, consisting of fifty-six members, the following names appeared:

LOUIS CALHURN
NORIAN CORTIN
JOSEPH E. DAVIES
WILLIAM DOUGLAS
HOWARD FAST
ELEANOR GIBBEL

JAMES G. PATTON
SENATOR CLAUDE PEPPER
MR. and MRS. GIFFORD PINCHOT
MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT
JAIME ROOSEVELT
AUBREY WILLIAMS
MRS. STEPHEN S. WISE.
American Rescue Ship Mission

Concerning the American Rescue Ship Mission, the following information was obtained at the morgue of the New York Times on February 17, 1941 by Special Agent [redacted].

An article in the January 12, 1941 issue of the New York Times indicated that the officers of the American Rescue Ship Mission are located in Room 810 of the Fifth Avenue Building, New York City. Since November 1940 this mission has been raising funds for the purpose of sending a ship to Marseilles to get Spanish refugees interned in France and then transport them to Vera Cruz.

The article further indicated that last summer the Mexican Government agreed to accept as many refugees as could be transported and it was further set forth that the Mexican Government had agreed to set aside 400,000 acres of land for this purpose and it was estimated that at the time there were 150,000 refugees in France.

Helen Keller had accepted the organisation's honorary chairmanship and the sponsors of the Mission included Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Louis Bamberfield, James Truslow Adams, Van Wyck Brooks, and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt. The article stated that Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt had since resigned and numerous others had followed her example. The sponsors had withdrawn their support from the Mission on learning that the Mission was being administered by the allegedly left-wing United American Spanish Aid Committee, which shares offices with the mission, and whose name appears on the door of Room 810, Fifth Avenue Building, New York City.

Charges of Communism have been levied against the Committee and therefore against the Mission, and the previous week these charges were denied by Miss Helen R. Bryan, Executive Secretary of the Mission, who said: "This organisation is absolutely non-political. It is not controlled by Communists, nor does it have Communist support."

Some sponsors re-affirmed their support and the fund raising drive continued, according to the article, and about $37,000 had already been collected, the money to be used to recondition and operate the ship. Each trip of the ship was to cost $100,000, according to Miss Bryan, who stated that a "group of business men had formed a corporation to raise the larger sum necessary to buy a ship."
Dear Sir:

A confidential source connected with the ALLIED LABOR NEWS, 1133 Broadway, New York City, has made available what is apparently a press release of the AMERICAN COUNCIL FOR SPANISH FREEDOM dated December 17, 1945. Information is set forth that ELEANOR ROOSEVELT met SOLEDAD ALVAREZ, whose husband, SANTIAGO ALVAREZ, is being held prisoner by FRANCO, on December 17, 1945. It was stated that Mrs. ALVAREZ arrived from Cuba to intensify the fight for her husband's freedom and Mrs. ROOSEVELT expressed interest in the case, stating that any trial of ALVAREZ and the other political prisoners should be an open one, adding that the International Panel of Lawyers should be permitted to enter Spain in connection and that only an aroused public opinion could force FRANCO to permit this Panel to defend ALVAREZ and the others, that justice demanded that political prisoners should have open trials everywhere in the world.

It was stated that the trial of ALVAREZ and ZAPERAIN was scheduled for the early part of January and that the AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR SPANISH FREEDOM, which arranged the meeting between Mrs. ROOSEVELT and Mrs. ALVAREZ, had organized an International Panel consisting, up to that time, of BARTLEY CRUM from America and probably D. N. PUTT from England. The Panel was designed to defend ALVAREZ and ZAPERAIN if FRANCO went through with his plan to try them.

The foregoing is submitted to the Bureau for its information.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR SPANISH FREEDOM
         INTERNAL SECURITY - S

You will recall that considerable pressure has recently been exerted by this group with respect to the establishment of an International Panel of Lawyers to handle the trial of Santiago Alvarez and Sebastian Zapirain, individuals who are presently under arrest in Spain for engaging in Communist activities.

I thought you would be interested in knowing that advice has been received from the New York Office that Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt met with Solejrd De Alvarez, wife of Santiago Alvarez, on December 17, 1945. The report indicates that Mrs. Alvarez arrived from Cuba to intensify the fight for her husband's freedom and that Mrs. Roosevelt expressed interest in this case. She alleged that any trial of Alvarez and the other political prisoners involved should be an open one. Mrs. Roosevelt is said to have expressed the view that the International Panel of Lawyers should be permitted to enter Spain in this regard and that only an aroused public opinion would force Franco to permit this panel to handle the defense in the case. She is further alleged to have stated that justice demanded that political prisoners have open trials everywhere in the world.

The American Committee for Spanish Freedom is reportedly the organization which arranged the meeting between Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Alvarez. Information with regard to the meeting was disclosed in a press release of the American Committee for Spanish Freedom.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—I read most of the rejoinders by my colleagues to President Roosevelt's undignified remark about newspaper columnists and I find that my own reaction is not personal resentment but regret that a man so important in the world should find time in his day and a place in his thoughts for such flippancy.

The original observation that the columnist was an excrescence on our journalism was flimsy and certainly thoughtless in its indictment of a whole branch of the craft. Without distinction between one man or woman and another, the President's hasty and fumbling explanation that his own wife was a diarist, not a columnist, showed he had spoken off the end of his tongue.

Diarist Mrs. Roosevelt may be, as he said, by way of excluding her from the category of warts, but she is certainly a political propagandist as reference to her column will show and she has referred to her work as a "column" rather than a diary.

Moreover, if any individual in the trade may truly be called an excrescence Mrs. Roosevelt qualifies because it is well known that she is not a newspaper woman by training and was engaged only because she was the President's wife.

Prior to his first election to the presidency, she was not in demand as a commentator and examination of her work over these years as a syndicate feature shows that she is an inferior writer, a sketchy reporter and an erratic thinker.

However, the whole incident, one that should not have been provoked by a man in Mr. Roosevelt's position for it suggests that one of the three political giants of our time is still unable to rise above petty, personal meanness.

To inflict a cut on a few insignificant individuals whom he dislikes or hates but who should be beneath the public notice of a respectable President of the United States, he need not hesitate to insult many others who have argued with fairness and restraint throughout the many legitimate differences of belief provoked by measures and men of his long regime.

Some of these are found among his own following, others among the opposition.

By lumping them all together, he showed again that he can not tolerate disagreement and holds in contempt those who are sincerely deceived by his conduct.

... but it has seemed to me that the New Deal columnists have been, as a group, more frankly propagandists than of the persuasion which might be taken for the right.

They range in quality from hysterical exhorters, some with no legitimate experience or standing in the newspaper business, to a few rather stately orators who, between elections, find grievances by the New Deal and its candidates to apply to its victims. In other cases, they habitually pump for a third of a fourth term.
In the past, the Left has been more optimistic about the Left-Right divide than the Right, and this has been reflected in the way the Left has been portrayed in the media. The Left has been portrayed as a group of people who are interested in social justice and the common good, while the Right has been portrayed as a group of people who are interested in individualism and the pursuit of personal gain.

The Left, however, has been more successful in this portrayal because it has been able to use the media to its advantage. Dear Hoover,

I must write you again how I wrote you before. I very admire you and your work and I also knew that President Roosevelt was the best President who ever had an American newspaper. I say of print such stuff about Miss Roosevelt. American for American. Do not tune out the Pacific Coast. It's a traitor and I don't want any more. It's dangerous. To say much. See you later.

Dear Sir:

The "Chicago Sun" for August 19, 1945, contained an article by FRANK SMOTHERS, which is here being quoted:

"The Atomic Bomb Calls for World Government"

"The atomic bomb transcends all other news of this epic year. Its use against Japan, I am convinced, was justified. But it signals the end of an age and the birth of a new age for which we are appallingly ill prepared. The transition already was on, and proceeding fast. Man's harnessing of atomic energy vastly increases the pace.

"One consequence is that the course of world government must be urgently speeded. The atomic bomb did not create the need for such government. When drafted, the San Francisco Charter, in the minds of its wiser backers, was but a start toward essential world government. It was an epochal advance on the way but only that. Now, existence of power which, unleashed by any country, great or small, could in a flash render any peaceful nation prostrate - with millions of dead, its capital, cities and centers of learning destroyed - leaves safety for none without world government."

"Men and women are tired today. Some, of high intelligence, have tended in these first weeks of facing the new, gargantuan problem, to give way to black pessimism; man has never kept pace socially and politically with his scientific advance; therefore he will not keep pace now, and will be destroyed."
"That does not follow. The part of citizens is not to prophesy but to find an unprecedented daring and candor in thinking and political action, equal to the unprecedented challenge.

"As soon as reason can possibly prevail, the United Nations must be transformed into world government, with effective control over development of atomic energy, including the right and power of all necessary investigation in all lands, to assure that no nation secretly develops its own bomb.

"American sovereignty will remain intact over all internal affairs. But we, as every nation, must extend effective sovereignty to world government for control of the world's business.

"The need was already here, before the atomic bomb. Wendell Willkie, among many others, recognized the necessity of extending sovereignty to a world authority. Now, with atomic energy, the coming alternative is a fearsome race toward previously unimagined destruction.

"Let no one say that we can keep the bomb to ourselves, America and Britain - or that we can have the slightest assurance of keeping ahead in developing it. As Mrs. Franklin D.-Roosevelt wrote last week, it was international from the first and calls for international control.

"At best, however, we shall not be able to transform the United Nations into world government overnight. What meantime? Here the problem is harder. There are obvious, weighty dangers in turning the bomb over to a security council without world government powers. But I believe the dangers are far less if we do than if we don't. Right now, the international race is on. It is injuring United Nations solidarity. Russian statements, for example, minimizing the importance of the bomb, are a natural emanation of Russian dismay over exclusive Anglo-Saxon possession of a secret that could blot out whole nations. Would we feel differently if the bomb were in Russian hands, and we without it?

"If members of the Security Council pool their greatest scientists for research on all phases of atomic energy, that will not assure an end to secret preparation of bombs by single nations; but otherwise such preparation is inevitable. And if the world's leading scientists are pooled, under the council, for world development of

Dear Mr. White:

It was a pleasure to receive your fine letter of December 21, 1953, with enclosures, and I was particularly interested in seeing the copy of your cablegram to the two Negro POW's who have refused repatriation. It was extremely well prepared.

In line with our conversation, you may feel free to utilize the following statement of mine relative to your radio program:

"It is my belief that Mr. Walter White's radio program makes a valuable contribution to intelligent enlightenment in a crucial sector of this democracy's struggle against the forces of bigotry, prejudice and subversion. The aims of his program are straightforward and simple. It emphasizes the truism that freedom belongs to everyone, that equal rights have been bestowed by our Creator and by our laws without regard to race, creed or religion. He rightly contends that justice does not exist where there is partiality in administering the law. He urges unceasing vigilance against the Communists whose determination to sow disunity he fully appreciates.

"Mr. White's efforts to create public opinion based on intelligent understanding and appreciation of the need for unity of purpose among all Americans are most commendable."

It is a privilege to have this opportunity to bless you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

When you told me the other evening in Harvey's Restaurant that my radio program was no longer heard in Washington I was quite surprised. But as I said the other night, the public seems to prefer Milton Berle to Walter White.

I am glad to say, however, that the program is still heard over WLIS in New York and in Boston, St. Louis, Los Angeles and one or two other cities.

I was particularly pleased at your comments about the program. I have tried to do an intelligent and honest program as I was capable of doing. It means considerable extra work in a very crowded schedule, but I have been glad to do it because I believe I was bringing guests and information to the American public which was somewhat different from that on any other program. But because the program is carried in most places as a sustaining one, there just isn't money to do the kind of promotion which is required in these times. Enclosed is a listing of guests who have appeared during the past year, to which someday I will be honored to add your name.

I do wish you could have heard last week's program when Major Milford W. Stanley, who was a prisoner of war in Korea for 1,014 days, told a thrilling story of how the Communists at first attempted to bribe him to turn against democracy and then tortured him horribly when he refused to do so. They made the quite erroneous approach believing that he would be a pushover because he is a Negro. Incidentally, I may do an article for LOOK Magazine on how Negro American POW's resisted Communist propaganda to a greater extent than other Americans, according to Army G-2.

And here is a copy of a cablegram I sent Thursday to the three Negro POW's among the twenty-two Americans who thus far refused repatriation. I am reliably informed that at least two of the three Negroes are eager to come home but are intimidated by some of the other Americans. I do hope that this cablegram may induce them to change their minds.

Returning to the radio program. I would very much appreciate the letter you agreed to send me expressing your opinion of it. I believe it and several others, including one from the War Department, may possibly restore the program to Washington and perhaps cause it to be heard in other cities.

Cordially,

Walter White
